Role of a Abacus Tutor

The Abacus Tutor, who has the right mettle – understanding attitude, pleasant manners, interested to take up teaching has to be sponsored. Utmost care has to be given in fully tapping the Abacus Tutor's competence.

A Abacus Tutor in Indian Abacus is one entrusted with the most important job of teaching the children. Teaching is like no other profession. As a teacher, he will be wearing many hats.

The Abacus Tutor will be a communicator, a disciplinarian, a conveyor of information, an evaluator, a class room manager, a counsellor, a surrogate parent to name a few roles he/she assumes in carrying out their duties.

The duty of aAbacus Tutor doesn't end when the 2 hour session is over. A conscientious Tutors will be involved in after - class meetings with her franchisee, assisting students, correcting homework, evaluating their class performance and test papers, taking extra classes for the weaker ones and calling parents. All these demand a sacrifice of their personal time. As a Abacus Tutor, committed to excellence, it's a sacrifice he can live with.

The Abacus Tutor should transit smoothly away from the planned lesson in response to the student's need which surfaces during the class. They should have the capacity to explain a concept so that it makes sense to a young child. He must master the ability to be tuned into every child in the classroom, letting little or nothing to slip by unnoticed.

Course Structure and Levels

- ◆ The lessons are structured level- wise i.e each level consisting of a 3-month period. The child has to attend one class for a duration of 2 - hours every week. At the end of each level, a test will be administered and based on its success the child qualifies for the next level In all, the course is spread in 8 levels covering 24 months.
- ◆ Global Grading Examinations (GGE) Students are conducted to assess speed and accuracy levels in Children. This helps them to compete internationally.

A good Tutor listens, questions, responds and remembers that each student and class is different. Our work involves caring, nurturing and developing minds and talents. Thus it involves devoting time often invisible to every student. Thankless hours of correcting books, preparing model papers and worksheets and other material to improve their speed and accuracy becomes a part of this onerous task.
